ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

FOR THE FALLEN Written by Laurence Binyon (1869–1943)

Read by PROFESSOR PAMELA RATNER

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning

AUDIENCE RESPONSE: We will remember them.

READING

IN FLANDERS FIELDS Written by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, MD (1872-1918)

Read by CHRISTIAN KYLE President, Alma Mater Society, UBC

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
in Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

CLOSING REMARKS

PROFESSOR PAMELA RATNER

GOD SAVE THE KING

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King!
